

CHANCELLOR NOMINATION

THE ROLE

Algoma University is actively seeking its next Chancellor for a four-year term starting on September 1, 2020 and ending on August 31, 2024.

The Chancellor is a volunteer who serves as the titular head of the University. The specific duties of the Chancellor include:

1. To assist in efforts to raise the profile of Algoma University and to advocate on its behalf
2. To promote the University's special mission in relation to Anishinaabe education.
3. To act as an ambassador for the University, both officially and unofficially
4. To confer degrees at Convocation
5. To participate, as possible, in other major ceremonies or events, such as the Induction Ceremony
6. To assist in both friend-raising and fund-raising
7. To provide advice to the President, as requested.

SEARCH PROCESS

The Search Committee for a Chancellor has been formed to seek nominations for the role of Chancellor. All submissions and the review process will be treated as strictly confidential.

Nominations must be sent by email to the Secretary to the Board at secretariat@algomau.ca by 4:30pm on Monday, June 15, 2020. Receipt of all submissions will be acknowledged by email.

The Search Committee for a Chancellor will make a candidate recommendation to the Board of Governors at a Special Meeting of the Board in August 2020. Upon approval by the Board of Governors, the successful candidate will be notified. All other candidates will be notified of the final selection by the committee.

SEARCH CRITERIA

A nominee for the position of Chancellor should possess as many of the following attributes as possible:

1. Is distinguished in their field and has a significant public profile, provincially, nationally, or internationally
2. Supports the general mission of the university, as well as its special mission for Anishinaabe education
3. Has shown an interest in Anishinaabe issues and/or connections with Anishinaabe communities or organizations
4. Has the personal traits necessary to be an effective advocate for the university, including speaking and relationship skills
5. Is a person of high integrity and strong character
6. Is willing to provide assistance in fund-raising or lobbying efforts
7. Can commit to the role, and would not be in a conflict of commitment between Algoma University and any other postsecondary institution
