PREAMBLE

Algoma University Land Acknowledgement

Algoma University respectfully acknowledges that its three campuses are located on the inherent and treaty lands of First Nations and within traditional lands of Indigenous peoples. For thousands of years, Indigenous peoples inhabited and cared for this land, and continue to do so today.

The Sault Ste. Marie campus is located in an area known as Baawaating on sacred lands set aside for education as envisioned by Chief Shingwauk for our children and for those as yet unborn. Located in Robinson-Huron Treaty territory, this land is the traditional territory of the Anishinaabek, specifically the Garden River and Batchewana First Nations, as well as Métis People. Sault Ste. Marie is also home to several urban Indigenous peoples.

We also acknowledge that;

The Brampton campus is part of the Treaty Lands and Territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit. In particular we acknowledge the territory of the Anishinabeg particularly the, Huron-Wendat, Haudenosaunee and Ojibway/Chippewa peoples; the land that is home to the Métis; and most recently, the territory of the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation who are direct descendants of the Mississaugas of the Credit.

We also acknowledge that;

The Timmins campus is located on Treaty #9 territory, also known as the James Bay Treaty. It is the traditional territory of the Ojibwe/Chippewa, including the Mattagami First Nation, as well as the Mushkegowuk (Cree), Algonquin, and Métis Peoples.

Equity, Diversity and Inclusion (EDI) Mandate:

The parties commit to embedding equity, diversity, and inclusion to foster a welcoming environment on our campuses. EDI values must be transversal in the entire organization to fulfil Algoma University's commitment to undoing systemic and institutional discrimination and to be publicly transparent and accountable. We also acknowledge that racism and discrimination exists and affects the five targeted designated groups in disproportionate, distinct and complex ways (women, Indigenous, Black and other racialized persons, persons with invisible and visible disabilities, and 2SLGBTQIPA+ persons).

The parties recognize that the goal of the University is the attainment of the highest possible standards of academic excellence in the pursuit and dissemination of knowledge, including consideration of Indigenous knowledge, to be achieved principally through teaching, scholarship/research, the creative arts and community service.

The parties agree to cooperate in the promotion and enhancement of the University and to encourage a climate of freedom, and to foster collegiality, responsibility and mutual respect in the pursuit of these goals.

The parties agree to ensure equitable treatment of members through fair, open and transparent procedures and practices.

It is the purpose of this collective Agreement to foster harmonious relations within the University community and to provide an amicable means for settling differences that may arise from time to time between the employer and the employees in the bargaining unit.

The Union and the Board of Governors shall ensure that all concerned are fully aware of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The union shall instruct its members that they are expected to abide by the terms of this Agreement and Policies of the University as provided in writing by Administration. The Board of Governors shall instruct its representatives that they must be familiar with the terms of this Agreement and policies of the University and are expected to abide by them.

A copy of the policies shall be made available electronically to all Union members on the Algoma University website and one copy of each new or revised version of these policies shall be delivered electronically to the members of the Union executive.
