 1. Degree: If you wish to gain credit for all your courses and complete the NALMA Level 1 Course Requirements, or work towards the Aki and Environmental Stewardship Certificate, or possibly obtain a degree, apply using our Online Application Tool. You will be graded and exams and assignments will be required.
 2. Auditing: If you would like to take courses only for personal interest while not receiving credit, with no exams or assignments, you can apply as an Auditing Student. Please note you will be ineligible to receive NALMA Level 1 if you follow this option. You are responsible for paying half the cost of tuition, plus full regulatory and supplementary fees. 6. Are the Spring and Summer courses eligible for OSAP?

We encourage you to contact the Financial Aid Office to determine if you qualify, as OSAP is calculated on an individual basis. However, the condensed courses are too short for part-time OSAP and it is unlikely the condensed Spring Institute schedule will permit the required 9 credits per week to qualify for an extension to your full-time OSAP using the Spring Extension Application Form.

7. When does registration open and when is the deadline to register?

Registration for Spring 2026 courses will open in February/March. If you are new to Algoma University, you need to apply to the University first, before registering. You can apply to the University any time before registration opens. It generally takes about 2 weeks for your application to be assessed. Please note though that the Intro to Land Stewardship course starts on May 4, so ideally you should be registered before May 1.

8. Who should I contact if I have further questions?

- Admission and registration related inquiries may be directed to the Office of the Registrar – E: regoffice@algonau.ca , domestic-admissions@algonau.ca
- To register for “Zhii Taadaa” (“Let’s Get Ready”) please contact E: Land1@algonau.ca
